

Primary color

The primary colors are red, green, and blue. Primary colors can be mixed to make new colors.

Print this color picture out. Ask your students to mix paint to make new colors.

Some examples are:

- kids can make purple color by mixing red and blue color.
- green color by mixing blue and yellow color.
- orange color by mixing red and yellow color.
- brown color by mixing red and green color.